Certificate Course In Dance

15 FEB - 20 MARCH, 2024

CONDUCTED BY

DANCE DEPARMENT
RAJKIYA KANYA MAHAVIDYALYA
SHIMLA

Led by

Professor Usha Sharma

Introduction

The dance department of RKMV offered a certificate course which aims to explore students' interest in dance which will also give them 2 credit after completing the course, within a structured and educational setting. Led by Usha Sharma, the head of the dance department, the course had an instructor, Tammanna Chauhan, who came to teach on the 18th. Through this program, students not only learn the art of dance but also develop skills that foster creativity and self-expression.

The Course primarily focused on 2 dance forms: Folk and Classical.

Folk Dance: The workshop highlighted the essence of Himachal Pradesh's folk dance, Nati, Haryanvi Dance, and Bhangra of Punjab, reflecting the cultural heritage and traditions of the regions.

Classical Dance: Participants explored the elegance and storytelling elements of Kathak, a major classical dance form of Northern India.

Course Journey

Running from 15 Feb to 20 March, the course provided a remarkable journey of dance exploration and skill refinement.

Week 1:

During the first week of the Certificate Course, Professor Usha Sharma initiated the participants into the intricacies of Kathak, Himachal Pradesh's folk dance Nati, Haryanvi dance, and Bhangra. She meticulously taught specific movements and chakkars, emphasizing sharper execution with increased power and energy. Furthermore, she delved into the cultural significance of Nati, enlightening the participants about its rich heritage and traditions. Basic steps of Nati, Haryanvi dance, and Bhangra were practiced, with attention to minute details such as hand positions and wrist movements, laying a strong foundation for the weeks to come. Overall, the week was marked by a deep appreciation for the beauty of Himachali folk dance, Haryanvi dance, and Bhangra, as well as cultural exploration.

Week 2:

In the second week of the Certificate Course, Professor Usha Sharma expanded the participants' repertoire by introducing new elements of Kathak, such as tukdas, aamad, tihayi, and paran, alongside various neck movements and footwork techniques. Additionally, the participants were introduced to Dhili Nati, a popular local variant, and Mala Nati, known for its collaborative nature, along with Bhangra. Through these additions, the participants gained a deeper understanding of the nuances within Kathak, Himachali folk dance, and Bhangra, further enriching their dance vocabulary and cultural appreciation.

Week 3:

Week three of the Certificate Course focused on refining the participants' expressions and interpretations through the introduction of common concept such as Krishna kavit. Moreover, the participants explored Mujra, Tauli Nati, and Haryanvi dance, delving into the historical and contextual origins of these dance forms. Professor Usha Sharma provided insightful discussions on the evolution and significance of these dances, enhancing the participants' understanding of their cultural heritage and artistic expression.

Week 4:

The final week of the Certificate Course culminated in the choreography and presentation of the participants' learning journey over the past three weeks. Professor Usha Sharma worked closely with the participants to refine their movements, ensuring synchronization and finesse in their performance, incorporating Kathak, Himachali folk dance Nati, Haryanvi dance, and Bhangra.

REPORT ON CERTIFICATE COURSE IN PAINTING

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Painting organized a two-credit certificate course of 30 hours in Painting from 15th February to 20th March 2024. The course aimed to enhance students' skills and knowledge in various painting styles and techniques. Two workshops cum demonstrations were conducted as part of this certificate course to provide practical learning experiences. The workshops were conducted by subject experts Ms. Sapna Chauhan and Ms. Jamuna Gurung on specific dates.

- i. Students participating actively in the course's classes.

WORKSHOP DETAILS

1. Ms. Sapna Chauhan conducted a session on Acrylic Painting and Landscape Composition on 16 March 2024. The workshop aimed to elevate students' skills in acrylic painting techniques and landscape composition.

ii. Workshop I on Acrylic Painting and Landscape Composition

2. Ms. Jamuna Gurung led a workshop on Portrait Making in Watercolors on 20 March 2024. This session focused on teaching students the art of portrait making using watercolors, emphasizing techniques and styles.

iii. Workshop II on Portrait Making in Watercolors

COURSE ENROLLMENT

A total of 25 students from various subjects enrolled in the certificate course, seeking to broaden their artistic skills and knowledge.

WORKSHOP ATTENDANCE

All 25 enrolled students actively participated in both workshop sessions. Their engagement and enthusiasm significantly contributed to the success of the workshops.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

The certificate course offered a thorough examination of painting history, genres, and techniques, broadening students' artistic perspectives. It enhanced their proficiency in acrylic painting, focusing on blending, layering, and texture techniques. The landscape composition segment emphasized perspective, color harmony, and spatial arrangement. The portrait-making workshop in watercolors refined students' abilities to capture likeness, expression, and emotion while exploring the unique qualities of the watercolor medium. This comprehensive approach not only developed practical skills but also deepened students' understanding and appreciation of painting as an art form.

CONCLUSION

The certificate course in Painting, including the expert-led demonstrations, significantly benefited the participating students. It enriched their understanding of painting techniques and composition through practical, hands-on experience, enhancing their overall artistic abilities. Therefore, it is recommended that such courses be continued in the future to provide students from various fields with the opportunity to explore and appreciate art.

Report

Yoga and Nutrition Certificate Course at RKMV Shimla

Introduction: The Yoga and Nutrition Certificate Course conducted at RKMV (Rashtriya Kanya Mahavidyalaya) in Shimla by the Department of Physical Education has reached its successful conclusion, marking a significant milestone in the journey of promoting holistic well-being through the integration of yoga and nutrition. Under the guidance of Programme Coordinator Dr. Jitender Thakur and Resource Person Mr. Chander Kant from the HPU Department of Yoga, the course has provided participants with comprehensive knowledge and practical skills to lead healthier lives. This report outlines the key aspects and outcomes of the course.

Duration and Structure: The course spanned a period of 30 hours, beginning on March 11, 2024 and concluding on March 28, 2024. It was meticulously structured to cover a diverse range of topics, blending theoretical insights with practical applications. The curriculum encompassed modules on yoga philosophy, asanas, pranayama, meditation techniques, nutrition science, and dietary principles, all aimed at fostering holistic well-being.

Participants: The course attracted a diverse cohort of participants from 1st year, 2nd year and 3rd year students. Their enthusiasm and dedication contributed to a vibrant learning atmosphere, fostering collaboration and exchange of ideas throughout the duration of the course.

Faculty and Instruction: The course was led by esteemed faculty members, including Programme Coordinator Dr. Jitender Thakur and Resource Person Mr. Chander Kant. Their guidance, expertise, and passion for imparting knowledge enriched the learning experience for participants. Through a combination of lectures, practical demonstrations, and interactive sessions, the faculty ensured that participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the course material.

Curriculum Highlights:

- Yoga Philosophy and Principles: Participants delved into the philosophical underpinnings of yoga, exploring its historical evolution and relevance in modern-day life.
- Asanas and Pranayama: Practical sessions focused on mastering various yoga postures (asanas) and breathing techniques (pranayama) to enhance physical, mental, and emotional well-being.
- Meditation and Mindfulness: Techniques for cultivating mindfulness and meditation were introduced to promote inner peace and mental clarity.
- Nutrition Science: Participants gained insights into the fundamentals of nutrition, including macronutrients, micronutrients, and dietary guidelines for optimal health.

Diet Planning and Management: Practical guidance was provided on designing personalized diet plans tailored to individual needs and goals.

Integrative Approach: The course emphasized the integration of yoga and nutrition principles to achieve holistic well-being, addressing both physical and mental dimensions of health.

Practical Application: Throughout the course, participants had the opportunity to apply their learning through practical exercises, case studies, and real-life scenarios. They engaged in yoga practice sessions, conducted dietary assessments, and developed customized wellness plans under the guidance of experienced mentors.

Assessment and Certification: Participants underwent periodic assessments to evaluate their understanding and proficiency in the course material. Upon successful completion of all requirements, including practical and attendance, participants were awarded certificates recognizing their achievement in the Yoga and Nutrition Certificate Course from RKMV Shimla.

Conclusion: The completion of the Yoga and Nutrition Certificate Course at RKMV Shimla, under the leadership of Programme Coordinator Dr. Jitender Thakur and Resource Person Mr. Chander Kant, signifies a significant step towards promoting holistic well-being in the community. The course has equipped participants with valuable knowledge, skills, and tools to lead healthier and more fulfilling lives. It is anticipated that the insights gained and practices imbibed during the course will continue to inspire positive transformations in the lives of participants and their communities.

This report encapsulates the successful culmination of the course, reflecting on its impact and the collective journey of growth and learning undertaken by all involved.
